

Day Roy provided all of the music for my daughter's wedding that was held outside with an indoor reception at 7PM Oct. 25, 2003. He also "MC'd" and assisted the photographer in gathering groups for formal pictures at the reception. He contacted my daughter months in advance to make certain her day was perfect. An extra surprise came from him after the reception with a CD of her requested songs and a list of all the songs, minute by minute, that were played before, during the ceremony and also played all evening during the reception. Day is very professional and reliable, but even more important; he is very manly and personable.
